ABOUT THE COMPANY

"If you've never seen ODC/San Francisco, then you've never seen Bay Area modern dance at its volatile, exuberant best... Breathtaking...haunting...splendid."
San Francisco Examiner

About Invisible Cities

"A cinemascopic vision of humanity...the wealth of detail is both rich and elusive."
San Francisco Examiner

"Dressed in early Flash Gordon duds, Nelson is the Italian traveler. 'Howard' [a puma 560 Robot] who is all retractable arm and serpentine tentacle, stands in for the Kahn....The dancers in Walker's exquisite, Oriental costumes, play out the marvels of [Marco Polo's] wanderings. In the pit, composer McNabb on soprano sax, Artis Wodehouse on piano and a battery of electronic equipment all deliver the score, which ranges impressively from the ominous pounding to sunny harmonies."
San Francisco Examiner

About Entropics

"The energy of the beach's inhabitants ebbs and flows like the tide, but nowhere does the intensity languish. At all times of the day, the sun's influence is inexorable."
San Francisco Chronicle

And More...

A world premiere duet, Constant Reminders, performed by Artistic Directors Brenda Way and Katie Nelson.
